

da milanofinanza.it

the entry of a major institutional shareholder is often the beginning of a maturation process for businesses and entrepreneurs who have a long-term development strategy and are not afraid to put themselves on the line. we listen to the thoughts of oscar farinetti, who has recently conducted the successful entry of tip to his italian food chain eataly.